Approximately 500 cases of aircraft parts and large quantities of fuel are stored underground at this field.

7. On 18 October 120 Chinese Communist Air Force pilots, selected from various Chinese Communist air units and assembled at Mukden, left Mukden for Khabarovsk in six transport planes. Soviet Major K'o-li-chi ( ), an air adviser to the Chinese Communists, was in charge of this group. All of these pilots are to receive six months pilot training in TU-4's at Khabarovsk.
